Why LASSO?

- Fully Customizable: Create and save your own quote templates and control the narrative with rich text to organize sections based on how you want to present the pricing to your clients.
- Flexible Pricing Presentation: Include everything from logistics and gear, to labor and travel, plus extras like sales tax or miscellaneous charges, so your client gets a full view of your services.
- Easily Track Status: Know if the quote has been accepted, denied, or if feedback has been provided with status changes and time stamps.
- Email Directly from LASSO: Gone are the days of downloading your Quote, opening up your email, and attaching the document before sending—instead send the quote directly from the LASSO platform to save time.
